Symptoms

Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

EMPIRE STEEL & IRON CO.

Will Begin Business About the First of May.

The company who recently purchased the Greensboro Furnace Company's property will be incorporated under the name of The Empire Steel & Iron Company.

We learn that the furnace will probably be fired up in a few days to test it and ascertain if any repairs are needed.

The following is taken from Mr. G. T. Kearsley's report in the Daily Bulletin of the Manufacturers' Record:

Greensboro—Iron Furnace and Mines.—Northern capitalists have organized the Empire Steel & Iron Co. and purchased the iron furnace at Greeensboro and ore mines at Ore Hill from the North Carolina Steel & Iron Co. The furnace and mines will be put in operation about May 1st, and the output controlled by Rogers, Brown & Co., of New York, who can be addressed.

A DRAMATIC TREAT.

Edwin Rostell Will Be Seen at His Best Next Week.

A dramatic treat is promised in the appearance of Edwin Rostell at the academy of music on Monday evening March 20th. The play that has been selected is one that will interest the majority and one in which Mr. Rostell will be seen at his best as by many it is considered his masterpiece, "Hamlet." We think there will exist but one opinion, and that is, that in Edwin Rostell will be found one who is in every way fitted to essay the role He is a young man, and yet wonderful as it may seem, we find him grappling successfully with a character that required years of toil and study by such actors as Booth and Barrett before it was mastered. He is spoken of by the press at times as a young man destined to be the greatest American actor. We do not hesitate to say that he is at present the representative American tragedian. His "Hamlet" bespeaks this, his every word, look and gesture evidences not only culture, but natural aptitude for the stage.

A Drunken Woman.

People around the depot yesterday saw the unusual and abominable sight of a drunken white woman. She was common-looking and very plainly dressed and was with a man, supposed to be her husband, who was also drunk. They stayed at the depot all the morning and about 11 o'clock repaired to a negro restaurant, on Davie street, and took dinner. They told Officer Jeffries that they were going to Reidsville and some one else they were going to Danville, so the officer didn't know where they would stop, but was very particular about getting them off on No. 36 and the further they went the better, he thought. When the train arrived they staggered from the depot and boarded it, the woman, especially, a pitiable but disgusting spectacle.

Place Not Selected.

The executive committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly met at the McAdoo House last night to arrange a program for the annual meeting which will be held the latter part of June.

Armistead Jones, E. B. Barbee, R. B. Holt and Frank Stronach, of Raleigh, owners of the Atlantic Hotel, were here to offer inducements for the meeting to be held at Morehead City, but as it had come to the knowledge of the committee that Greensboro and Charlotte would make offers, the selection of a place was postponed until these cities are heard from. Let's get them here!

Will Open April 1st.

W. H. Matthews is busy now making arrangements for the opening of his new store in the M. P. building, on April 1st. He will open with a full and well selected line of clothing and gents' furnishings. Mr. Matthews will do a strictly one-price, cash business —something comparatively new in Greensboro, but which is nevertheless the right plan—a plan which, by his energy and popularity, he will carry to success. He has secured one of the prettiest stores in the state and the Telegram extends its congratulations and best wishes.

Bradshaw and Newlin.

Col. J. A. Long, of Graham, and O. S. Newlin, of this city who have been associated in the practice of law, have dissolved partnership and Mr. Newlin will associate himself with G. S. Bradshaw, of this city. The new firm will be known as Bradshaw & Newlin. The Telegram hopes that their partnership will be beneficial to both.

HOT TIME DOWN IN GEORGIA.

Nine Negroes Shot While Waiting Trial for Arson.

GOVERNOR ASKED FOR TROOPS

Two Hundred Militiamen Will Take Charge of Palmetto at Once—Intense Excitement Prevails.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Atlanta, Ga., March 16—A Constitution special from Palmetto, Ga., says that nine negroes who were awaiting trial under the charge of arson, were shot down by a mob at two o'clock this morning. The special contained no further particulars.

Palmetto, Ga., March 16—Early this morning a mob of masked men stormed the little house doing service as a jail here and shot nine negroes. Four were killed outright and the other five are badly wounded. The negroes were awaiting trial for arson. There have been three fires in the town since Jan. 1st, and the place was almost destroyed.

The mob rode into town about one o'c'ock and the guard was called on to turn over the negroes. He refused and awoke his assistants. They were all quickly overpowered, however, and with a rush the mob made for the prisoners who had been awakened by the noise outside. The negroes began begging for mercy but were shot quickly. The greatest excitement prevails. Nearly every body was awakened and spent the remainder of the night in the streets. An outbreak of the negroes in the vicinity is feared. There are many threats to avenge the shooting.

Governor Chandler was called on this morning for troops to be sent here immediately. Despatches from Atlanta say that two hundred militiamen will take charge of the town at once. The trouble arose originally over the enforcement of a prohibition law. The negroes were arrested for carrying bottles of whiskey and in return threatened to burn the town.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

General Otis So Cables to the War Department.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Washington, March 16—General Otis cabled the war department today that reports from Iloilo indicate improvement. There is less activity on the part of the insurgents of the Island. The reports from Negros Islands are most encouraging. The inhabitants are enthusiastic and quiet prevails throughout the Island. Col. Smith is directing affairs in framing the government. Cebu is quiet and business is progressing under the United States' protection. Reports from Samar and Leyte indicate a desire on the part of the inhabitants for United States troops. The insurgents' control is confined to Luzon and the occupation of Pasig river line with control of Laquanda Bay has cut the country occupied nearly in two equal parts.

To Bring Sherman Home.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 16—A telegram was received at the white house today from Colgate Hoyt, the traveling companion of ex-Secretary Sherman on the Island of Martinique, stating that Mr. Sherman has pneumonia and requesting that he be brought home on a government vessel. Secretary Long immediately ordered the Chicago, which is about due at Havana, to proceed immediately to Kingston, Jamaica, to meet the Paris and take Mr. Sherman off and bring him home.

MRS. COLLINS NOT ON BOARD

The Ill-Fated Yacht Norma Which Was Lost in the Red Sea.

Lengthy reports of the loss of the yacht "Norma" in the Red Sea appeared in this morning's papers. In the list of passengers reported lost appeared the name of Mrs. C. C. Collins, wife of the agent of the Southern Express Company in this city. This is a mistake. Mrs. Collins, for the past few months, has been visiting her parents at Seattle, Wash., and Mr. Collins had a letter from her only a few days since.

The yacht was owned by N. J. Weaver, of New England, who, with a party of friends, was on a pleasure cruise around the world. He was well known in Greensboro as a gentleman of wealth and extravagance.

Mrs. Collins was on the yacht about two years ago and her name was probably taken from one of the ship's old logs. She is yet in Seattle and that she is safe will be glad news to her many friends here.

Last Saturday night your correspondent was at the depot when No. 7 arrived, and a young man by the name of Bruce Craven, of Trinity, who was very anxious to have his name in this paper, called us up to the car and asked us to put an item in our news stating that he had passed thro' en route to West Point, Miss., to visit relatives. We have since learned that he had only gone to Salisbury to peddle for the Cosmopolitan Magazine. He is evidently a good running mate for Baron Munchausen. Don't lie to a reporter.

Woodley—Cook.

Mr. William A. Cook and bride, nee Miss Isa G. Woodley, of Charlotte, who were married at the home of the bride at 8:15 o'clock, arrived here on the vestibule last night, accompanied by a few friends, and drove out to Pomona, their future home.

From the Charlotte Observer's account of their beautiful wedding we clip the following:

"The bride, as stated, is the daughter of Dr. W. T. Woodley. She and the man to whom she last night gave her heart and hand, had been sweethearts since their school days in Greensboro. She is unusually bright and attractive, and will under any and all circumstances make friends and keep them. Her wedding dress was white silk, high cut bodice, with chiffon and lace trimmings. She wore no veil, only a white rose, which was becomingly arranged in her pretty dark hair. She carried Bride's roses.

"The groom is a popular and highly esteemed young business man of Pomona. He is to be congratulated upon his good fortune of last night. He and his bride will make their home at Pomona. They received a number of handsome presents."

THE VIRGINIA SENATORSHIP.

Much Talk About Senator Martin and His Opponents.

NEWPORT NEWS' ADVANTAGE.

As a Landing Place for Troops Returning From Cuba—As to Ewart's Re-appointment.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, March 16—The statements made that Senator Martin has opened headquarters in Washington, in order to push his canvass for re-election to the senate, is without foundation. The senator has been in Washington for the greater part of the time since congress adjourned, being kept here on account of Virginia matters in which he is interested. His friends say that he has no idea of opening, or maintaining headquarters in Washington, as he feels that he is assured of re-election. At any rate it is not probable that he would go to the labor and trouble of maintaining headquarters this early in the contest, when there is practically no opposition candidate in the field.

There is much doubt felt concerning the intentions of Col. Walton Moore. He announced his candidacy some time ago for the senatorship, in opposition to both Senator Martin an General Lee, but has apparently done very little to push his candidacy. If anything is being done by him to oust Senator Martin from his seat the work is being conducted very quietly. Friends of Col. Walton Moore are of the opinion that he will stick, and will be found in the field when the time comes for the legislature to elect, but nothing is known definitely regarding him.

The name of Representative Jones, of the first district, has been prominently mentioned in connection with the Virginia senatorship. Mr. Jones, it is known, would not be averse to stepping into Mr. Martin's place in the senate, but it is not thought that he will be a candidate for the seat, in the sense of making an active contest for the honor. If he should enter the race actively many Virginia people believe that Col. Jones would be a strong candidate, and might make Senator Martin move about lively to retain his seat.

Newport News, which is rapidly forging ahead as the leading port in this section of the country, is likely to have a decided advantage over the older ports of Savannah, and Charleston, in the work of the landing of the troops from Cuba. The objections raised against the ports further south, as a landing place for the troops from Cuba to be mustered out during the spring or summer, have no bearing so far as Newport News is concerned, as yellow fever is not likely to gain a foothold in this section. At the War Department the opinion was expressed the other day that Newport News would get considerable of this business of landing of troops.

The president, it is said, had not reached any conclusion in regard to Judge Ewart before leaving for the south Monday evening. The impression and belief is strong that Ewart will again get a recess appointment, but it is not probable that anything will be done for some time. Certainly not until the return of the president from his trip to Georgia.

Large numbers of people are returning to Washington from the south, where they spent the cold season. Southern Pines, which is always an attractive place for both winter and summer tourists, it is said, had a large Washington contingent during the present season, as did other resorts in North Carolina.

Among well known naval officers in Washington are Commanders Charles M. Thomas and Rockwell. The latter is stationed at the Norfolk navy yard. Both officers are at the Ebbitt House.

Site of postoffice at Emit, Johnston county, North Carolina, has been moved one mile north.

Postmasters have been commissioned in North Carolina as follows: James P. Coward, Cowarts; Rufus C. Long, Tuscala; Seba F. High, Emit.

Among North Carolina people in Washington yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kerr, who are registered at the Raleigh Hotel.

J. W. Thackston, of Raleigh, North Carolina, is at the Metropolitan.

BREESE GETS TEN YEARS.

To Be Confined in the State's Prison at Raleigh.

Asheville, March 15—The last day of the trial of William Bresse, president of the defunct First National Bank, charged with embezzlement, abstraction and misapplication, drew the largest attendance ever known in a United States Court here, and the room was packed to the last foot of space.

At the morning session Judge W. P. Bynum, Jr., special government counsel, concluded the argument for the prosecution, and Senator Pritchard closed for the defense at the afternoon session. Judge Purnell began his charge to the jury at 4:30 o'clock, the charge consuming more than an hour, at the close of which the court adjourned. In less than half an hour the jury reached a verdict, and the court reconvened, when the jury pronounced Breese guilty. Breese sat with his head resting on his hand and listened to the momentous words without the movement of a muscle. Judge Purnell sentenced him to 10 years in the penitentiary at Raleigh, a designated United States prison. The defendant moved for a new trial, which was overruled. An appeal was taken to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals and the bond fixed at $30,000.

On the first ballot the jury stood 11 to 1 for conviction. This one was Juror Dever, of Transylvania, Breese's home county. By the time the second ballot was taken Dever's doubts had been removed and the jury stood ready to render a verdict. The case has been on trial eight days.

The case against J. E. Dickerson, a director in the defunct bank, will be called tomorrow morning. It is understood that an effort will be made to have the case removed from Asheville. —Special to Charlotte Observer.

The Pest House.

A joint committee, composed of members of the board of county commissioners and the board of aldermen, met in the mayor's office this morning to decide upon a site for the pest house, where those who have been exposed to smallpox will be quarantined. It was decided to build a temporary structure in the cemetery, where the city owns the land. The house will be in the northwestern corner of the cemetery, half a mile from the graves. Those who have been exposed will probably be quarantined tomorrow.

"JUST WILMINGTON."

The Charlotte Observer, which has a way of being just and fair and of saying the right thing in the proper season, has the following editorial reference to the destruction by fire of the Record building in Wilmington last November and the payment therefor. Under the above heading the Observer says:

There was published in yesterday's paper a news item from the Wilmington Messenger, setting forth that on Friday last the business men of that city, through a committee of two gentlemen, paid over $690 to the several negro lodges which owned the Record building which was burned on the 10th of November last, when the plant of the Record was demolished. The public knows all about this occurrence. That paper had made an infamous utterance and its office had to be sacked. While this was in progress the building caught fire and was consumed. It was claimed at the time and has been claimed ever since that the fire was accidental. We have our doubts about that; it seems much more probable that the fire was deliberately applied by some irresponsible member of the mob—some light-headed, hot-headed person, such as always attaches himself to a movement of this character.

But however this may be, the point upon which we would fix public attention is this: that the just and fair-minded people of Wilmington have voluntarily paid for the building burned. As said above, the printing office had to be sacked; moreover, the editor of the paper had to be driven away. These things were acts of justice—stern justice, it is true, but justice. But there was no purpose to visit harm upon the innocent, and when harm came to the property of orderly and unoffending negroes, through no fault of the good people of Wilmington, they promptly, like the just and generous people they are, contributed the money and paid for it. This proves that they do not hate the negro, as such, nor seek to punish him merely because he is black. The mayor and chief of police whom they ran away were white; Manly, the editor, black. All were run off not because they were either white or black; not, primarily, because they were republicans, but because they were bad citizens, disturbers of the peace.

In paying for this Record building the white people of Wilmington did what was right: at the same time was generous, liberal, as these things go.

The body of Lieutenant Shipp, the gallant Carolinian, who fell in the front of battle at Santiago last summer, has arrived on native soil, having reached New York on the McClellan. Extensive preparations are being made at Lincolnton for the proper reception and final burial of the remains, which are expected to arrive at that place tomorrow. Thousands of hearts will reverently pray as the mound is heaped over the loved form: Peace to his ashes and ever green be his memory.

The old pugilist, John L. Sullivan, says Aguinaldo is a "fresh kid" and the only way to establish peace in the Philippines is to "exterminate the whole push." It begins to look like Sullivan is about half right, but that is not a humane country's idea of "war for humanity."

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the opening of the Trinity College Gymnasium this evening at eight o'clock. The program includes a lecture by Prof. Albert Whitehouse, after which the gymnasium will be inspected.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Howard Gardner.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist Church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says; "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

VILLAINS IN NOVELS.

HOW SOME OF THE FAMOUS AUTHORS DISPOSE OF THEM.

Examples of the Grewsome Fates That Have Been Devised by the Writers of Fiction For Their Men and Women of Crime.

Dickens is responsible for a most entertaining gallery of rogues. Quilp (the distorted dwarf) and Rogue Riderhood (the ruffian) alike terminate their existence in a watery grave. Ralph Nickleby, Gashford and Jonas Chuzzlewit take their own lives, while Uriah Heep, Squeers and Littimer leave their country for their country's good in garbs gratuitously provided by government and freely embossed with "broad arrows."

Perhaps the most grewsome of Dickens' death scenes is that provided by the face of the ever smiling Carker, into which the irresistible locomotive is impressed, probably for the first time in the history of fiction.

Scott's villains most frequently meet with violent deaths at the hands of others, often their accomplices, or commit suicide on the eve of discovery and disgrace. But the sensation lover has nevertheless been catered for in the death of Anthony Foster, the accomplice of the poisoner Richard Varney. This miserable wretch is depicted as hiding from his pursuers in a secret cell. The entrance to this is fastened by means of a spring lock, of which, however, he omits to retain the key, with the consequence that he eventually perishes miserably of mingled fear and famine.

Lytton's "Night and Morning" gives us the coiner Gawtrey, who meets his fate at the hands of the Paris police, from whom he is attempting to escape when a pistol shot drops him over the side of a house to perish miserably. This idea of falling from a height is by no means confined to Lytton. It is utilized by Anthony Hope in "Phroso" and by Stanley Weyman in "Under the Red Robe," where the villain and his victim fall from a lofty bridge into a seething torrent below. In this way, too, Conan Doyle killed the immortal Sherlock Holmes, who, fast locked in a struggle with "the greatest villain of them all," falls over an Alpine precipice.

Wilkie Collins brings his principal villain, the double faced, calculating Count Fosco, to an ignoble end, he disappearing for a time, only to reappear upon the ghastly shelves of the Paris morgue. A still more ghastly fate is that of the she fiend, Gagool, immortalized by Rider Haggard in "King Solomon's Mines." Having conducted Quatermain, Curtis and party into that celebrated monarch's rock hewn treasury, which is guarded by a ponderous rising door of living rock, she touches a secret spring, by means of which the door begins once more to descend with a slow but irresistible motion.

While the Englishmen are sizing up the jewelry she makes off through the rapidly lessening aperture. Her progress is temporarily arrested by the unfortunate girl Foulata, whom she stabs in order to free herself. Hurriedly scrambling over the threshold, she is caught by the inexorable force which she has herself put in motion, and a realistically dramatic "scrunch" puts an end forever to the machinations of this truly horrible old woman.

Svengali, like Scott's Templar in "Ivanhoe," dies from an excessive mental strain acting upon the heart, while, to hark back to the days of the bluff Doctor of Fleet Street, the gentle, genial hearted Goldsmith is contented to reform the rakish Squire Thornhill in order that he may at last become the exemplary spouse of the gentle Olivia, around whom he wove that entrancingly simple narrative, "The Vicar of Wakefield."

Finally, the palm for "writing lurid" may fairly be accorded Harrison Ainsworth for his thrilling disposal of the two ghoulish wretches who haunt the pages of his celebrated novel, "Old Saint Paul's." The creatures who battened upon the spoils of the dead and dying during the great plague were wont to stow their ill gotten gains in one of the cathedral vaults. The cathedral taking fire, they hasten thither in order to rescue their precious hoard. The greed of gain, however, misleads them into sojourning just a moment too long.

As they turn to leave the now stifling vault they see that a thin silvery stream is making its way down the stairs, by which alone they can gain an exit. Even as they look it thickens perceptibly, and before they can escape the whole stairway is blocked, and the vault about them begins to fill with the silvery liquid. When it is added that the harmless looking fluid is nothing more or less than the molten lead from the roof and windows of the cathedral, it will become apparent that even Mr. Gilbert's "something with boiling oil in it" possesses a dangerous rival in the pages of "Old Saint Paul's."—London Standard.

The Cricket's Chirp.

The variation of speed in the chirping of crickets depends so closely on temperature that the height of the thermometer may be calculated by observing the number of chirps in a minute.

At 60 degrees F. the rate is 80 chirps a minute, at 70 degrees F. 120 per minute, and the rate increases four chirps to the minute with a change of one degree.

Below a temperature of 50 degrees F. the cricket is not likely to make any sound.

The value of all the gold, silver, copper, iron, coal and lead mined every year in America is exceeded by the products of the forests. Even the combined wheat and cotton crop is less in value than the forest products.

The Sure La Grippe Cure.

There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your liver, stomach and kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure or price refunded. For sale at C. E. Holton's drug store. Only 50 cents per bottle.

Origin of the Postal System.

The wonderful postal system, which has reached out until it includes every country on the face of the earth, had its beginning in the mind of an ingenious Frenchman.

In 1658, early in the reign of Louis XIV, M. de Velayer established a private penny post. Boxes were set up at the street corners for the reception of letters and offices were opened in various quarters of Paris. Collections were made once a day from the street boxes, followed many hours later by a single delivery, and thus the first postoffice in the world was established.

M. de Velayer was so greatly encouraged by the success of his enterprise that in order to develop it still further he printed certain forms of billets or notes which were intended to cover all the ordinary requirements of business in great towns. These forms contained blanks which were intended to be filled up by the pen with such special matter as might be necessary to complete the writer's object. The idea at once became popular, and the printed forms accompanied the expansion of the postal service throughout the larger cities of France, and it was many years before they fell into disuse.—Harper's Round Table.

Still Smoking Twelve Years After.

The man had been absent from New York for a number of years. During his absence many changes had taken place. Some of his friends had moved away and some had died. Though he had taken the New York papers pretty regularly, he had not kept up with these friends of his as he should have done.

One evening he called upon a woman friend who was living at a hotel. Arrived at her rooms, he found her surrounded by a crowd of people, but he finally reached her and shook her by the hand.

"You are just the same," he said admiringly. "You haven't changed a particle," which was not at all true, for her hair had turned so white that she had the air of a marquise in some old picture. "And your husband, too," he went on, "he is just the same as ever. I saw him just now down in the lobby. He was smoking."

The woman looked a trifle startled for a moment, then recovered her composure with considerable effort.

"I am sorry to hear," she remarked gravely, "that my husband is still smoking. He has been dead for 12 years."—New York Sun.

Shooting Stars.

When a shooting star breaks into flame in our atmosphere, the residuum of the combustion remains in the air and can be found in what is known as atmospheric dust. The virgin snow of the polar regions was often seen to be spotted with traces of dust which contained particles of iron. Like particles are found on church towers and elsewhere. Among the minute bodies that dance in the sun's rays there are certainly particles of shooting stars.

The sands of the African deserts when examined by a microscope present traces of very small iron particles which seem to have been subjected to a high temperature, and the Challenger on its remarkable trip in the Atlantic found at times in its dragnet fragments of magnetic iron which we have every reason to believe fell from the sky. Sir William Thompson (Lord Kelvin) and Richter have even seen in the aerolites the disseminators of the germs of life throughout the universe.—Chautauquan.

The Strength of a Bear.

Few people know that a grizzly bear can give points to any other carnivorous animal in point of strength. A grizzly bear weighing just 400 pounds has been watched carrying a heifer two-thirds its own weight for two miles up the most steep and rugged mountain side, and this without pausing for one instant for rest.

The big white polar bear, though not really so dangerous a customer, is capable of performing the most extraordinary feats of strength. A polar bear has been seen to move with his paw a bowlder six men had with difficulty put in position to guard a cache of provisions.

Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service

JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central & Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2.20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jeckyl Island are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York ond Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jekyl Island. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thweatt, E. P. A., Southern Ry, 271 Broadway, New York.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by C. E. Holton.

The report widely circulated, that Miss Agnes Irwin had resigned as Dean of Radcliffe College was premature.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or is "just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles, Insist vigorously on having it if "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. is a preventive of smallpox, and a dollar a month is a preventive of getting your clothes dirty—for that is our business, to clean and press. We also make no exception to the ladies. We clean and press their skirts and waists at a figure that will astouish you, but one we will guarantee to give you good work. We dye Wednesday. Give us a trial and we will please you.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

O. S. Newlin went to Graham today.

S. N. Thompson went to Raleigh today.

Harry & Belk Brothers have an interesting change of ad in their space on third page. Read it.

Prof. P. P. Claxton, of the Normal College, will lecture before the students of Oak Ridge Institute Saturday night, the 18th.

Miss Eva Lindley, who has been spending a few days with Mrs. C. M. Vanstory, returned to her home in Pomona today.

M. W. Crocker, representating Hicks' Capudine, the new headache medicine, has completed his work here, and left today for Winston.

By an amendment to its charter the Southern Guarantee and Investment Company has now become the Southern Loan and Trust Company. Read the new ad on the first page of this issue.

Physicians will be at the court house and market house tomorrow to vaccinate those not yet served. Up to noon today 2 8 had been vaccinated at the market and 55 at the court house. Dr. Gunter has vaccinated about 175.

The Eunice Goodrich Co. who play at the academy of music here three nights next week, passed through the city this morning going to Durham. Thadeus Gray who is well remembered here as a splendid actor, is with the company.

Officers Jeffries and Pearce this morning captured Gus Britton and landed him in jail. Gus, it is charged, has been acting the walking dispensary around town doing most of his business on Sunday. In other words he has been retailing.

Lee's company of hypnotists passed through the city this mornsng going to Concord where they have a three-nights engagement. They have been playing in Goldsboro this week. Mr. Lee says he has been doing good business since leaving here.

Rev. Dr. Egbert W. Smith, of the First Presbyterian church, this city, delivered an address last night before the Sunday School Convention in Salisbury, on "The Sunday School as a Spiritual Force." J. R. Mendenhall, of this city is also attending the convention.

The Otis Elevator Co., of New York, have secured the contract to furnish and erect the elavator for Messrs. Wharton & McAlister's new building on East Market street. Their agent is in the city to superintend the work, which will be begun as soon as the elevator can be gotten here.

This bright, spring morning has brought Will Rankin out with a smile all over his face—you know it is bread. He is quite busy today showing his friends the nobby new styles in young men's suits that his firm has just gotten in. They are beauties, for we have seen them ourselves.

Charles Paschal, a white man whose faithful wife conducts a boarding house over Ridge's furniture store, on South Elm street, got drunk last night and went home cursing and threatening, to the terror of his family. Officers Weatherly and Whittington arrested him before any of his threats were carried out, and carried him to jail.

The rain this week forced the superintendent to suspend work on the long distance telephone line between Greensboro and Winston. Poles have been erected between here and Guilford College and holes have been sunk several miles beyond the latter place. Work will probably be resumed tomorrow, if the good weather, which has prevailed today, continues.

A certified copy of the deed from the C. F. & Y. V. Railway Company to the Atlantic & Yadkin Railway Company, was filed in Register of Deeds, Kirkman's office yesterday afternoon. A copy of the deed has to be given in every county through which the road passes. It transfers $3,125,000 worth of property and $3,125 worth of revenue stamps were required on the original.

SMALLPOX CURE.

Mr. Woodroffe Says It is Positive and Never Failing.

In publishing the recipe for smallpox furnished us yesterday by Mr Thos. Woodroffe, the printer, by one of those inexplicable blunders, made it read "forty-eight ounces of rhubarb" when the recipe correct should read "forty-eight grains" It is as follows:

"Three ounces cream of tartar, forty-eight grains of rhubard, mix with one gallon of cold water." As a preventive drink half a pint occasionally. If failing with the disease drink half a pint every two or three hours.

Mr. Woodroffe adds that he had the disease in his family of nine in England and only three were effected. The prompt use of the above remedy prevented the spread of the disease.

Colonel Sullivan's Idea.

Col. John L. Sullivan, speaking of the Filipinos, says: "We'll always have trouble with that bunch of heathens. I hear they are cannibals, and if they catch a white man they boil and eat him. Will America stand for that kind of citizens? Not in a thousand. This Aguinaldo is nothing but a fresh kid, and he's making a monkey of himself and the rest of the Filipinos. The only way to make peace in the islands is to exterminate the whole push."

The Date Changed.

The Cornell University—Oak Ridge Institute game of base ball at Greensboro athletic park, has been changed to Tuesday, March 28th. The railroads will give reduced rates. The Oak Ridge Institute boys will be down in force expecting to win. A big crowd is expected.

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER:

Please permit us to ask you a very pointed question: Have you a Universal Food Chopper? By this we do not mean a meat grinder, but a Chopper, which takes the place of chopping bowl and beater.

It chops meat, of course, but it does more. You can chop ham, cocoanut, or bread instead of grating it. You can—but we can't tell it all here. Our booklet gives full information Free. You will have use for it every day in the year. It is very simple and very cheap. Please call and let us show it to you. Yours truly,
